

Name of Proposal:	ENC 092- Writing Laboratory Web-enhanced with ESL Component ENG 100-English Workshop Web-enhanced
Purpose of Project:	ENC 092 and ENG 100 both supplement English Composition courses. They were designed to provide individualized assistance in meeting a student's writing needs. Web-enhancement will allow inclusion of diagnostic component and allow for delivery of modular tutorials designed to meet the needs of students concurrently enrolled in ENC 092 for developmental writing courses and ENG 100 for students in ENG 101.
Goals:	This web-enhancement will offer a flexible alternative to traditional lab experience. Course redesign allows students to work either in the STAR Center or from home computer at their convenience. Course redesign will include the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Identification of target audience and distribution of information about the labs to SCC Advisors.</li> <li>2. Addition of sections of ENC 092 and ENG 100 to spring 2005 schedule.</li> <li>3. Development of diagnostic component.</li> <li>4. Creation of modules for remediation and/or integration of existing PLATO modules.</li> </ol> Course can be saved electronically and shared with other instructors. Can also be used as a web-enhancement any English composition course. ANGEL platform is easy for both novice students and instructors.
Evaluation:	Student progress will be closely monitored throughout the first semester of implementation. Based on student and instructor evaluations, course materials will be modified to meet needs. Upon completion of course, student's progress in future English courses will be tracked. Providing supplemental instruction will not only increase student success in course but it will also increase retention.
Technical Support:	ANGEL platform will be requested from KCTCS/KYVU. PLATO available through KYVAE. 2 Laptops for course development.
Budget:	Travel to NADE Conference 9-13 March 2005 Albuquerque, NM (see attached Travel Proposal) Additional expenses may include, but are not limited to: Travel for KCTCS personnel to give an ANGEL workshop at SCC Purchase of CDs for electronic distribution of the Course content.
